

Rev. Bobby Gibson, Associate Pastor of Fellowship Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship Church

"And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching." Hebrews 10: 24, 25

Rev. Bobby Gibson serves as the Associate Pastor of the Fellowship Ministry at Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship Church. In this capacity, he oversees the following departments: Singles, Couples, Counseling, Health and Wellness and Comfort and Care. As an associate pastor, Rev. Gibson additionally provides therapeutic and spiritual counseling to members and supports the Senior Pastor in teaching, preaching and training.

Fellowship, as one of the four vital experiences, seeks to create a church where no one stands alone. Rev. Gibson has the task of ensuring that each department provides a safe and caring environment where members can share common experiences with other like-minded individuals and that all members receive the support they need to properly function emotionally, physically and socially in the context of Christian love.

Rev. Gibson is a licensed professional counselor and therapist and has extensive experience in pastoral ministry, leadership coaching and managerial leadership. He holds a Master of Arts in Christian Counseling from Oral Roberts University. He is married to Gloria and they are the proud parents of three: Christopher, B. J., and Shawnone with four grandchildren: Keyara, Bryana, Christopher II, and Bria.
