

The Writer's Spirit

The Spirit of Creation Moving in you...

Welcome to our Commemorative 9/11 Edition!

Let us pause in commemoration of the ones lost on that tragic day. May God bring rest, peace and comfort to their families and friends.

Now, it's time to rejoice and celebrate all of those whose lives were spared. MyFirstChapter.com has found one of those souls and now presents her story to you.

"Is that my Baby Girl Victoria calling out to me in the midst of all of that turmoil? Go get My Baby Girl!"

These words resonated so deep in Victoria's spirit that her ears were filled with God's very voice. It didn't matter that the building was swaying to and fro". It didn't matter that she was on the 63rd floor. It didn't even matter that all around her was chaos and confusion. All that mattered was that she needed her Father. She wanted her Dad and her Dad alone.

She did what any child would do in a desperate situation. She cried out to and for her Father. Her cry was different from what we might expect. Her love for her Dad drove her to not just call out to him but to fall on her knees and call out praising in song, thanksgiving, love and in deep reverence.

Her Father just happens to be our Father in Heaven--Elohim, The Creator. And she just happened to be in Tower One of the World Trade Center on the 63rd floor on the infamous morning of September 11, 2001--now simply known as 9/11.

Victoria's Father does what He always does when He hears the cries of one of His children. He showed up mightily in full display of His Names:

El Shaddai (The All Sufficient One)
El Elyon (God Most High)
Jehovah-jireh (The LORD Will Provide)
Jehovah-raah (The LORD My Shepherd)
Jehovah-shammah (The LORD Is There)
Jehovah-shalom (The LORD Is Peace)
Jehovah-saboath (The LORD Of Hosts)
Jehovah-nissi (The LORD My Banner)

God accompanied her that day, step by step, during her treacherous journey down those 63 flights of stairs and then in the streets of New York. Sistah Victoria got to walk in the "Names of God" real time like few of us ever will.

It is with great honor that MyFirstChapter.com presents to you a real life victor of 9/11 - Victoria Lockhart. Being a victor of 9/11 puts her in a special place in history. But it's not the only thing that makes Victoria special. She is an accomplished gospel artist, a writer of books and songs. The Lord has commissioned a women's ministry to her hands—"Girl Talk: Queen of the Roundtable" which has now evolved into "Kingdom Woman-Kingdom Man" Conferences. While her journey in these ventures started well before 9/11, her life and work have forever been changed by God's amazing Hand of Grace.

Now it's time to sit back and hear her story. You're invited to boldly walk with Victoria down those 63 flight of stairs at Tower 1 of The World Trade Center and then through the streets of New York. Victoria recounts her journey in her book, "Girl Talk: Queen Of The Roundtable." The chapter regarding her 9/11 experience is entitled "The Day I Lived"; not because she survived but because she became alive in a whole new way. (Adobe Acrobat required to read this file.

Victoria has graciously made this chapter available to you. Simply click on "The Day I Lived" and you will be taken to this powerful story. We promise you will be changed forever. If you wish to add this book to your personal library, go to <http://www.clubchristministries@yahoo.com/> for more information.

Finally, Victoria sends a special prayer to you, the readers of "The Writer's Spirit."

To hear her pray charismatically for you, visit God's Hometown Network's home page at http://www.godshometownnetwork.com/20714_4474.asp and listen to Victoria's 9/11 Prayer. While you're there, also enjoy musical selections by Victoria and other gospel artists.

Victoria did what we all can do in times of great trial and in times of peace as well - call out to our Father. He will hear your plea.

The Lord says, "Whoever loves me, I will save. I will protect those who love me. They will call to me, and I will answer them. I will be with them in trouble; I will rescue them and honor them. I will give them a long, full life, and they will see how I can save." Psalms 91: 14-16

Victoria and her testimony are living proof that God is true to His Word.

So, walk in the promises of God. He promises to:

"Stay by your side in danger." Joshua 1:9

"Make you strong and wise." Job 9: 4

"Turn even tragedy into good for you." Romans 8:28

"Make you strong." Joshua 1:5

"Guide you." Psalm 48:14

"Multiply your talents." Matthew 25:21

In closing, whisper this prayer in the coming days:

My Loving Protector and Wise Shepherd,

Thank You for granting me the favor of Your protection. Thank You for hearing my cries and my pleas. Thank You for rescuing me not in my time but right on time. Thank You for making a way out of no way for me, My Generous and Gracious Guide.

Hear my pleas now, Elohim-My Creator. Create in me the spirit to produce for Your Kingdom in abundance. As the rain and snow come down from Your Heaven, let it cover me and remain in me so that I grow to be all that You destined me to be. Produce in me abundant seed for Your fields and living bread for hungry souls of this world. Let Your Word go out over all of my endeavors so that they will always produce great fruit and accomplish all that You want it to and prosper everywhere You send it.

Walk boldly in His promises and produce abundantly!

Please be our ambassadors and spread the word about <http://www.myfirstchapter.com/>.

Blessings in great abundance,

Shelia & Al Benskin
